It is expected that most contacts will be informal and personal. For establishing new contacts, however, and as a general guide, the following list of services with the designation of the responsible ORR unit is furnished:

1. Intelligence support in general and information on research and Reports publications -- Reports Division.
2. Support for National Estimates and for the Economic Intelligence Committee -- Office of the Assistant Director.
3. Evaluations and coordination of requirements -- Requirements and Control Division.
4. Cartographic and graphic support -- Cartography Branch, Geographic Division.

(Requests for the compilation, drafting and reproduction of new maps for inclusion in reports and for other purposes and requirements for graphic support, involving the design and execution of charts and other visual aids, are fulfilled by this Branch. Requests may be submitted by memorandum or in person.)

5. Map reference services -- Map Library Branch, Geographic Division.

(All requests for reference maps obtainable from foreign and domestic sources, including the several US map producing agencies, should be directed to this Branch. Information on foreign place name locations is also provided. Requests may be submitted by memorandum, by telephone (ext. [ ]) or by calling in person at the reference desk in the Washington [ ] .)

MEMORANDUM FOR: Each Assistant Director

SUBJECT: Examination of Intelligence Publications

1. In order to provide more systematic handling of the initiation of new intelligence publications in the Agency, the Assistant Director for Intelligence Coordination has been assigned the responsibility for insuring that:

a. The publication of information contained in the issuance is within the functional cognizance of CIA and the originating Office.

b. The publication is properly coordinated and integrated with other intelligence publications issued by both CIA and other intelligence agencies.

c. The requirements of intelligence consumers are most efficiently and economically satisfied.

2. In discharging this responsibility the AD/IC will consult with both producers of the publication and end-users on the substantive aspects of the publication in question and with the Advisor for Management on functional and other administrative aspects. He will also insure that the interests of this Agency and other agencies' are reconciled.

3. In the event of disagreement the AD/IC will refer the problem, fully documented, to the DDCI for decision.

4. AD/IC will be responsible for conducting periodic review of existing intelligence publications with the parties concerned and report semi-annually to the DCI on the status of the Agency's intelligence publications.

1. "Secrecy Agreements", "Security Agreements" and similar agreements are the concern of the Assistant Deputy/I&S. It has been noticed that some offices are independently drawing up such agreements without the approval or knowledge of the CIA Security Officer.
